Professional Designations

Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA[®]), CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER[™] (CFP[®]), Enrolled Agent (EA)

Explanation of Designations

Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA[®]) charter

The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charter is a globally respected, graduate-level investment credential established in 1962 and awarded by CFA Institute — the largest global association of investment professionals. There are currently more than 200,000 CFA charterholders working in 134 countries. To earn the CFA charter, candidates must: 1) pass three sequential, six-hour examinations; 2) have at least four years of qualified professional investment experience; 3) join CFA Institute as members; and 4) commit to abide by, and annually reaffirm, their adherence to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct.

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER[™] (CFP[®]) designation

The Certified Financial Planner[™] (CFP[®]) designation is conferred by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Candidates must have a bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university, three years of full-time personal financial planning experience and complete a course of study in financial planning topics. A candidate may be exempt from the course of study requirement if he or she holds a CPA, ChFC, CLU, CFA, PhD in business or economics, Doctor of Business Administration, or attorney's license. All candidates must successfully complete the CFP Certification Examination. CFP[®] practitioners are subject to the CFP Board's ethical standards.

Enrolled Agent (EA) credential

An enrolled agent is a person who has earned the privilege of representing taxpayers before the Internal Revenue Service by either passing a three-part comprehensive IRS test covering individual and business tax returns, or through experience as a former IRS employee. Enrolled agent status is the highest credential the IRS awards. Individuals who obtain this elite status must adhere to ethical standards and complete 72 hours of continuing education courses every three years.

Enrolled agents, like attorneys and certified public accountants (CPAs), have unlimited practice rights. This means they are unrestricted as to which taxpayers they can represent, what types of tax matters they can handle, and which IRS offices they can represent clients before. Learn more about enrolled agents in Treasury Department Circular 230.
